1. Two independent sources have furnished additional information tending to confirm the close relations that now appear to exist between the Union Revolucionaria (UR) and Lt. Col. Alfonso Llosa, Minister of Development and Public Works in Peru.
2. Lt. Col. Alejandro Izaguirre, one of Llosa's close personal advisors, has recently conferred with Senator Luis A. Flores, UR leader, and assured him of the great degree of support that Llosa enjoys among military elements in the south of the country, particularly in the Cuzco area where Izaguirre is now stationed.
3. A recent visitor of Flores has been the UR leader in Cuzco, a Dr. Guevara, whose son serves as the personal courier between Llosa in Lima and Izaguirre in Cuzco. Dr. Guevara and his son were said to have been invited to Lima by Llosa to receive further orders, the exact nature of which has not yet been reported. Dr. Guevara also assured Flores that the entire south would support Llosa "in case of trouble", and stated that General Odría had few sympathizers in Cuzco or other sections in the south.
